

CHARDONNAY 2020

BACIGALUPI VINEYARD
RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY
SONOMA COUNTY

From the famed Bacigalupi Vineyard in Sonoma's Russian River Appellation (same vineyard as Chateau Montelena's Chardonnay that won the 1976 Judgement of Paris).

The 2020 FOURMEAUX Chardonnay is a seductive wine of incredible scale and energy. The nose is dripping with intoxicating aromas of apricot oil, yellow peach, almond croissant, and cardamom spice and a hint of lime sorbet. The palate is a satiny elixir of lemon confit and apple pie spice layered over a succulent core of white peach preserves. The finish is rich and luscious with an attractive texture and tension on the finish. This wine has a lot more to reveal over time and will age gracefully for well over a decade when properly cellared.
